Hot off the Griddle

THE BUILDING OF A CHICAGO NEWSPAPER is bombed. Hundreds of lives are endangered. The paper, outspoken in its censure which permits vice to run riot unchecked, draws down upon itself the bitter enmity of the evil anti-social forces of the city. The bombing is the result. But it takes more than dynamite, political sabotage and persecution to gag a fearless newspaper with right on its side. The men who threw the bomb might have killed scores of innocent people, but it is safe to say they would never have killed the spirit of an aggressive newspaper.

THE NAME OF RASPUTIN, sinister genius of the ill-fated Romanoff dynasty, again appears in print. The notorious charlatan has been dead for some years, but the interest in his malevolent influence has not subsided. Rasputin practiced his quackery on the unfortunate little Czarovitch with seemingly remarkable success. He exercised a hypnotic influence over the foolish Czar, and the weak-willed Czar, but evil draws its own reward and Rasputin's life ended at the hands of assassins. The strange brilliancy of this man diverted to honest channels might have been the salvation of Russia's royal family. Instead, it greased the skids for their downfall.

THIRTY STUDENTS AT COLLEGE University who cheated at examinations have been studied by a psychologist who has decided that they are the victims of emotional instability. That is the psychoanalyst's angle and it may be the correct one. Those who have gone to college and struggled with involved examinations have a different answer. They tell you that so long as universities insist upon stuffing examination papers with tricky questions on obsolete information, just so long will students continue to crib. The proper function of an institution of learning is not to trap the unwary, but to instruct the unknown.

"THE GREATEST GIFT that life can give is just living," says Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, pure foods authority. He is eighty-four years old and has lived a long, useful, honest life. He had little schooling, but he did plenty of reading. The study of pure foods became his hobby and later his vocation. He had many disappointments, but they failed to dampen his ardor for life. That is a good thing for our younger generation, dissatisfied and despondent, to remember.

HARRISON FISHER, WHO HAS painted more than 15,000 of the world's most beautiful women, is going to marry. He has been one of America's most notable bachelors. He explained his attitude on marriage once when he said, "There are so many good-looking women, how can a man pick one without being sorry he didn't pick some one else?" But there is more to marriage than the selection of a woman of pulchritude. There are character and beauty of soul and individuality. Each woman has these qualities in varying degrees. No two are alike.

RUMANIA'S BOY KING Michael is to be brought into close contact daily with the peasant children of his kingdom. A King Michael school is to be opened at which the child will be one of the pupils. Other members of the class will be picked from every race and strata of Rumanian society. Those responsible for this step are using good sense. The king who knows his people and rubs shoulders with them need not fear the lash of Revolution.

NEW $25,000 INDUSTRY IS IN PROSPECT

With the acquisition of three acres of land in San Pablo, construction of a pottery for the manufacturing of dinnerware and hotel ware will be started within the next few weeks, according to information secured yesterday.

The pottery will be located in Kearney street in San Pablo, on which street it will front, and will extend back to the Santa Fe tracks, permitting transportation facilities.

It is planned to construct a two-story building at a cost of $25,000 and as the demands for production increase the plant will be enlarged. The building will be of hollow tile and brick with concrete floor and will be one-story in height.

The Richmond district is fast becoming the pottery center of the Pacific Coast and the location of other plants in this territory was instrumental in establishing this new industry here.

The new pottery, like the others, will cater to a distinct need and will restrict itself to the manufacture of household and hotel porcelain tableware.

Selection has already been made for the personnel of the plant and all of the men are experienced potters in their line.

Odd Fellows Block Sought By Big Firm

Plans for the location of retail stores in Richmond by both Montgomery Ward and Sears Roebuck and company are revealed in negotiations between the two firms and Richmond property owners during the past few weeks.

Montgomery Ward and company, which operates a mail order branch and retail store in Oakland, for the past two weeks has been negotiating with the Odd Fellows Hall association for a five-year lease on its building in Tenth street. No agreement has as yet been made between the two parties as it is understood that improvements sought by the mail order firm as terms in the lease were of such considerable amount for a short term lease that the Hall association feels it would sustain a distinct loss.

The company has been seeking the entire building in which it plans to conduct a retail store in accordance with its recent plans for expansion into this field.

Plans for the construction of a building by the company in the business district are also being considered at this time, it is understood.

The Sears Roebuck company, principal business competitors of Montgomery Ward and company, are reported to be also seeking a site in Richmond, having been negotiating for property during the past few days. This company, which has been maintaining a branch mail order department in the southern part of the state, recently acquired a site in the Mission district of San Francisco on which it plans to erect northern headquarters to serve a chain of retail stores in addition to its customers in the outlying sections.

Both firms have already established retail stores in several of the smaller Pacific Coast cities and are planning to extend their chains into other cities.

MAIL ROBBERY PROBE STARTS

Rigid probe of the mysterious looting of the Giant post office Monday night of one lone registered letter was launched yesterday by both county and postal authorities.

The theft when first reported appeared inconsequential until it developed that the stolen registered letter contained a certificate for 23 shares of Atlas Powder stock (common) worth $1851.50 on the basis of the latest stock exchange transactions in that security, issued in the name of Emma J. Pickering and addressed to the Giant Powder company, subsidiary of the Atlas. Transfer of the stock was immediately stopped in Wilmington, Delaware, upon advice wired east by R. H. Stratton, superintendent of the Giant plant.

Mrs. K. E. Peterson, postmaster at Giant, advised the authorities that rigid investigation failed to disclose the absence of anything, else of value and the fact that the burglary was committed during the few hours that the stock certificate was in the Giant post office, as well as the fact that other mail matter was not disturbed, prompted the launching of a searching probe.

Preparing to combat the insanity plea District Attorney James F. Hoey yesterday had Dr. F. B. Clark, superintendent of the state hospital for insane at Stockton, and Dr. Ogden, superintendent of the Napa asylum, examine Moranda at the county jail. Both physicians, it is said, declared Moranda to be sane.

STRENGTH OF GOP NOMINEE ON INCREASE

By RAYMOND CLAPPER
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—Headquarters of Herbert Hoover here were today at rest from the Wisconsin republican primary showing the LaFollette candidate for the gubernatorial nomination had been defeated by Walter J. Koehler, a conservative friendly to Hoover.

Several complications, however, do not make entirely a clear-cut victory. For one thing Koehler won because of a split in the old LaFollette vote. His two opponents together had a majority over him. Young LaFollette, who was renominated by almost two to one, supported representative Joseph D. Beck for governor. This was a former LaFollette lieutenant and still held some of his old followers although a weak third in the race.

With the old progressive vote thus split, Koehler, a bathtub manufacturer, strongly pro-Hoover, and assisted in his campaign by a representative of the republican national committee from Washington, won the nomination, although receiving less than the combined vote of his two opponents.

The result also has another complication in that the candidate who happens to stand nearest to Hoover on prohibition, Governor Zimmerman, ran third. The winner is wet despite his leaning to Hoover. The runner-up also is wet. Zimmerman attributed his defeat partly to the activity of the anti-saloon league in this behalf.

F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, told the United Press Zimmerman's defeat was not because of his prohibition stand.

"The defeat of Governor Zimmerman in Wisconsin was due to several causes not connected with the wet and dry issue," McBride said. "Governor Zimmerman has been unfortunate in being on the unpopular side of a number of public questions. His position in (Continued on Page Five)

THE LONDON TRAIN WRECK

A Wreck on an American railway, such as that which occurred in London the other day would pass almost unnoticed in this country, where short of many people killed the tragedy comes as part of a lifetime. In England we are informed there is a very different attitude which makes the news of a train wreck correspondingly more important.

English railways think nothing of a yearly record of no accidents. They are used to them, as we are used to a higher proportion of fatalities and to greater incidence of property damage. The reason is not far to seek in the comparative ages of the civilization of England and America.

The safety movement in which the railways of America are leading with very great concessions made to the working hours required by their men to study and perfect themselves in the conservation of the human asset, is an older story across the water. What can be encouraged about on this side is that the subject is being so steadily pursued by the industries and by transportation.

"GONE ARE THE DAYS"

In one respect we were disappointed in our trip down South. When we reached the belt where moss hangs from trees we began to look for Negroes playing banjos in front of cabins. They may have been there in days gone by. But alas and alack, now they sit by the roadside and patch Ford tires.—From a Letter to the Lyon, (Kas.) News

Newspapers with a blue tinge are advocated by technical men. About half of the party organs in the country will have a decidedly bluish tinge around the middle of next November.—Akron, Ohio, Beacon-Journal.

No higher compliment can be paid Herbert Hoover than that he is respected by the mothers of this country, and, when all is said and done, the mothers of this country run the works.

The highest compliment which can be paid a man is to have his subordinates respect him. Anybody who ever worked with Hoover would go the limit for him.

With Mrs. Clem Shaver in the picture, the independent woman voter is no myth.—Detroit Free Press.

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

Julie Says—

BEAUTY

If you throw caution to the winds and disregard the current fashion by allowing yourself to get sun-burned this summer—at least put away your usual face powder and match up your mahogany complexion with a sun-burn powder.

Nothing is more ludicrous than a tanned face out of which protrude a startling white nose and chin. Lots of women still think that when they have powdered their noses and chins they are finished, quite forgetting that, by contrast, the rest of the face looks sallow and shiny. If you must be powdered, use a powder which "tans" the face. The same is true to some extent of the shade of rouge used. It should be darker and less brilliant than your usual choice.

Dear Miss Lane,
My legs are fat and I would like to reduce them. I have been using a reducing cream, but it doesn't seem to do much good.—A. K.

No, and what's more it won't do any good no matter how long or conscientiously you use it. Exercise and diet will help you slenderize your legs, but I could advise you better if I knew whether you are overweight apart from your legs. Try a little regular, high kicking and the bending exercises from the hips and palms on the floor. If you will send me the details of your weight, height, etc., I may be able to help you more definitely.

Opportunities

Nothing is more at variance with the truth than the old saying that opportunity comes but once. Opportunities are never lacking for those that are prepared to accept them. Usually the possession of a little ready money means the enjoyment of decided advantages. A growing savings account in the American Trust Company, where funds earn four per cent interest, compounded semi-annually, is of great assistance to every person ambitious to succeed.

JEALOUS MATE TORTURES HIS WIFE'S LOVER

The charming Irene Rich again gives a performance of poignant beauty. She is cast as the wife of a hard-boiled army man who is in command of a British outpost in a desert region of India. Used to the gay world of London society, Lady Diana pines for the friends she has left, and when a young soldier is transferred from Blighty to the desolate station, her heart goes out to him.

The husband furtively jealous makes life a torment for the young recruit, sending him to reconnoitre near a village of unfriendly natives. Prior to sending Trent on this mission the commander desert patrol. He is fished and swooning in the midst of blazing sands. Trent finds him and through fearful suffering arrives with him at the barracks. The commander has received word which calls him from the camp and the returned Trent, nursing Kellogg, who is delirious, is approached by Lady Diana, who has been dispatched to escape from the horrors imposed upon him. The association of the two has been tender—and the lad implores Lady Diana to go with him back to England. Together they start.

Coolidge Son Looks For Job In New York

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—Another bright young man, college educated, with good connections in the middle west, came to New York today looking for a job—and had to be rescued by a squadron of police from an onslaught of 50 photographers and reporters as soon as he stepped off the train. Meanwhile, John Coolidge's father was out in Wisconsin shooting clay pigeons and his mother was rocking on the front porch at Bruie, both of them hoping he'd get along all right.

He did. Accompanied by R. C. Woods, a bodyguard, young Coolidge gave the smart city newspapermen the slip and while they were still hunting for him in the big station he was already in conference with E. G. Buckland, vice-president of the New York and New Haven railroad. Presumably he was asking about work.

But he wouldn't say, and the crowd at the station caught only a glimpse of a flushed young face beneath a gray hat.

"You can't make a statement about a job until you get on," said the bodyguard in explanation. "Now can you?"

Shortly thereafter the railroad official took John out to lunch. They planned to leave later for the Coolidge home in Northampton, Mass.

How To End Constipation

If you want to get rid of constipation for good, you must cleanse the liver of its stored-up bile and set it to working right. Remember, it's a torpid, lazy liver clogged with bile that keeps you constipated. Fully supplies bile poisons your whole system, causing headaches, bad breath, sallow skin, sour stomach, gas, indigestion, drowsy spells or other disagreeable symptoms.

All that any ordinary physic does is to force a bowel movement without getting at the liver. What you really need is a thorough internal cleansing with Plantax, which brings out all the accumulated bile and other foul secretions.

Plantax is a most effective liver tonic compounded from the juices or extracts of harmless plants—remedies from Nature's own laboratory. It acts in a gentle, easy way—no irritation or weakening of the organs. Large bottle $1. On sale at La Moine Drug Co. and all other good drug stores.

PAIR ADRIPT ON DESERTED ISLE FIND NEW LOVE

Either Ralston's new starring vehicle, the Paramount picture, "Half a Bride," holds a world of interest for everybody from every angle. It has a stellar cast, an absorbing story, an outstanding star.

The story deals with a girl who, with wealth, physical beauty and mental alertness, has tasted all of life's thrills at the age of 21.

This girl, inspired by a radio lecture on companionate marriage, undertakes for herself a trial marriage in the hope that it may provide a thrill that wine, men and song have failed to give her.

She is shanghaied from her groomed mate just before her wedding night, taken aboard her father's yacht and forced into a trip around the world.

Rebelling, she escapes from the yacht, and with the young captain of the yacht, whom she despises, is adrift on a stormy sea.

With the captain, she is finally washed ashore on a deserted island off the west coast of Canada. For weeks she lives the life of a cast-away with a strong, red-blooded man whom she ridiculed and despised when he was in her father's employ.

Finally true love comes to her and she realizes that her companionate marriage and the way of her former life don't matter.

Gary Cooper plays the male lead and a strong supporting cast was assigned. "Half a Bride" is a timely picture.

This picture is heralded as one of the best productions yet to be presented at the California theatres. The presentation is strengthened by the addition of a Bobby Vernon comedy "Bugs My Dear," the current issue of International News and our own Will Rogers.

regard to the state income tax law alone aroused against him much opposition in his own party ranks.

Republicans here are keenly interested in the stand young Senator LaFollette will take in the presidential fight. Many believe this young man, who succeeded his famous father in the senate, and was one of the youngest men ever to enter that body, may hold the balance of power in the presidential fight in Wisconsin.

LaFollette, if left to his own inclinations, probably would oppose Hoover and support Smith, who stands more nearly on the LaFollette progressive platform as regards power and many other questions. To the LaFollette in Wisconsin, Hoover means Lenroot—the former Wisconsin senator, bitter foe of the LaFollette, and now counsel for the electric power industry.

Senator Blaine of Wisconsin already has indicated leanings toward Governor Smith. But the whole situation is much more complicated by the fact that the head of the state ticket turns out to be a strong Hooverite.

Officials at republican headquarters were reluctant to comment until they learned what Senator LaFollette's attitude toward the national ticket will be.

Hindu Husband Of U. S. Girl Hit By Charge

BOMBAY, India, Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—A beautiful, black-eyed Hindu woman today hurried sensational charges of wrongful imprisonment and mistreatment against the former Maharajah of Tukojirao, now living in France with his American bride of a few months, the former Nancy Ann Miller of Seattle, Wash.

The high court, attempting to decide whether it had jurisdiction in the case, heard charges brought by Sowkabal Pandarinath Rappurkar, who is seeking to recover 184,000 rupees from the former Maharajah in her suit.

According to the woman, Tukojirao held her in prison for ten years, inflicted personal injury on her, misappropriated her property and inflicted systematic cruelties on her for ten years both at Indore and at Bombay.

She told the court that Tukojirao had deceived her and her daughter from Bombay, through paid agents, with immoral designs and ultimately had confined them at Indore. Upon their arrival at Indore, in 1915, she said, Tukojirao ordered her residence surrounded by a military cordon and then suggested—as a price of freedom—that her daughter become his mistress. The offer was indignantly refused, she said.

Navy Dirigible Battles Storm

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—The navy dirigible Los Angeles was soaring southward along the Atlantic Coast tonight in the face of adverse weather conditions, on an overnight training flight to Langley Field, Va., from its hangar at Lakehurst, N. J., the navy department announced.

Overcast weather and rain squalls whipped portions of the coast, and the dirigible is in constant communication with naval radio stations at Washington and Norfolk to keep constantly posted on weather conditions.

The Los Angeles took off from Lakehurst late this afternoon and plans to cruise slowly along the coast, landing at Langley Field at sunrise Thursday to train the landing crew there in handling the giant airship.

DEM. OUSTER IS HINTED BY COUNTY BOARD

MARTINEZ, Sept. 5.—Asserting that he has called upon G. A. Wilcox, high school instructor here and a Hooverized Democrat, to resign as a member of the Contra Costa county Democratic Central committee, E. W. Netherton, present committee chairman, announced today that unless he soon receives formal notice of Wilcox's withdrawal he will call a meeting of the committee as it is now constituted and "virtually read him out of the party."

Wilcox, former president of the local Al Smith club, resigned the presidency and then issued a public appeal to democrats to refrain from voting for him for a central committee post from the third supervisorial district. Wilcox explained that his ideas on prohibition didn't jibe with those of the New York governor and that he intended to vote for Hoover.

Democratic chieftains determined to aid the instructor in his retirement and publicly asked democrats to write in the name of Larry Noonan. But the vote check polled 370 ballots to 50 for Noonan.

Subsequently Wilcox announced that he intended to retain the post, saying that resignation would not express appreciation to the 370 democrats who voted for him. But Netherton, dyed in the wool democrat, and appointee of the Wilson administration in the internal revenue department, "can't see how Wilcox can consistently hold his central committee post and vote for Hoover."

"I have called on the professor to submit his resignation," Netherton said today. "If it is not forthcoming I feel it is my duty to the democratic party to call a meeting of the central committee and virtually read him out of the party."

Wilcox is considering the action he will take.

Netherton, first president of the Smith club, resigned to make way for the election of Wilcox. The instructor presided at one meeting, and then submitted his resignation explaining that his school duties would not permit him holding the office.

In announcing that he would retain the central committee post, Wilcox said he would refrain from attending meetings during the present campaign but that he would resume democratic committee work "when the democrats get back on the right track again."

Netherton maintains that the democrats are on the right track and insists that Wilcox's resignation must be forthcoming.

EX-WIFE SUED BY EX-HUBBY FOR BACK RENT

MARTINEZ, Sept. 5.—Discovering that the wife who divorced him was remarried a year ago to C. A. Smith and has been living since that time in his residence at 128 Seventeenth street, Richmond, LeRoy A. Mealman of San Pablo, through Abhorney Tsar Calfee, to day filed suit here against Smith and his wife, Dorothy, asking a judgment of $420 claimed due as rent on the residence.

Although the stilted verbiage of the legal complaint does not reveal the fact, Calfee disclosed today that Mealman's divorce agreement with his wife will be the basis of his suit.

Ordered to pay $40 monthly for support, Mealman and the then Mrs. Mealman agreed that the latter could reside in the home for five years, or until she remarried.

Mealman says he just recently discovered that his former wife had remarried a year ago and that with her new husband had been occupying the dwelling since.

Mealman bases the judgment asked on the premise that the house has a rental value of $35 monthly.

FORMER COAST LEAGUER STAR IN BIG LOOP

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

United Press Sports Writer

From the movies to baseball is the strange path Ernest Orsatti, plucky little outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinals has traveled.

Before Orsatti took to the field, he was acting before the camera, not in his own right but as a double for Buster Keaton.

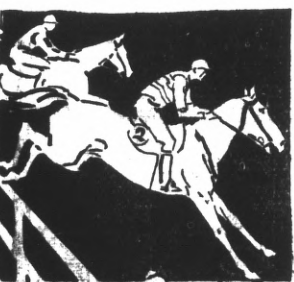

Orsatti was brought up near Hollywood and his close resemblance to the frozen-faced comedian and his nervous grin, a job in the movies. He did the dangerous tricks as Keaton's double and Buster got the applause.

Orsatti played baseball around the Hollywood lots on Sunday and so developed into a semi-pro player. Keaton, a great baseball fan, encouraged him to enter professional baseball. Orsatti joined a Pacific Coast League club, and soon attracted the attention of the St. Louis Cardinals, who purchased him out to the Houston Texas League club in 1927.

Orsatti developed into one of the stars of the Texas League, and was recalled by the Cardinals near the end of the season. In the end of the season, Orsatti made an immediate success. He hit well over .300 and fielded sensationally. His play came near landing the Cards in first place.

The Cards sent Orsatti back to the minors during the winter, and it proved to be a bad mistake in judgment by some one connected with the club. Fans around the circuit were astonished when they learned that Orsatti was to go to Milwaukee. He would have brought a fancy price from any of the other seven teams but the Cards owned him outright and thus were able to farm him out again.

Undismayed, Orsatti stuck to his hitting and became one of the stars of the American Association. In need of another outfielder in the final pennant drive, the Cardinals recalled Orsatti again late this season.

Orsatti got off the train the late afternoon of the first game of the recent crucial series with the Giants, and an hour later donned a Cardinal uniform and put in three of the seven hits—a single, double and home run—made by St. Louis. Orsatti also made a home run in the second game and it was not his fault that the Giants swept the three game series.

Sannies May Enter League

Three Richmond teams may be entered in the Oakland Winter league, it was announced yesterday. It is almost certain that "Bill Jones" Sannies will be given a berth while San Pablo and the Richmond Carmen, now known as Danville Merchants, have an excellent chance to get into the loop.

Jones already has sent in his application to President Nealon of the California State League, and has secured the required support to place his team in the league.

Plan For New Golf Course Is Announced

MARTINEZ, Sept. 5.—That plans are under consideration and negotiations under way to improve about 600 acres of land in Pinole valley into a model golf course and country club property was admitted by Archibald Andrews, Oakland banker and head of a coterie of east bay capitalists who recently acquired the property from St. Ignace College.

The sale of the property was reported some time ago by James L. Hommedieu real estate developer withheld announcement of details of the project pending the return of Andrews. Andrews recently returned from an Alaska trip and negotiations for leasing of the property to others who might develop the golf club project were renewed.

Today the El Sobrante Land Co., holding corporation of the property, was incorporated here, the directors being Archibald Andrews and W. S. Overton of Piedmont, R. A. McGrath of Berkeley, John Shipps and James L. Hommedieu of Oakland.

French Boy Is Leader In Swim

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—When the sun dropped down behind the western rim of Lake Ontario tonight an 18-year-old French boy, George Michel, was churning through the waters on his way toward a $25,000 goal.

Michel alone of more than 250 crack long distance swimmers of the world who had started in the 15 mile Wrigley marathon at 11 a. m. was still in the race. All he had to do to win the $25,000 first prize was to finish. He could take as much time as he needed.

At 7:10 p. m. he still had four miles to go.

In the last hour before dark such notable swimmers as the one-eyed Ernst Vierkotter of Germany and Roland Togniet of Seattle had given up the fight and signaled officials that they were ready to be taken out.

Athletes Rate High In Tests

RIPON, Wis., Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—College athletes do not lower the standing of a college student body, according to Dr. S. R. Ellis, professor of education at Ripon college.

Professor Ellis soon will submit a detailed report covering a study and examination of class marks of Ripon college students over a period of four years from 1922 to 1926, to the Carnegie Foundation, as refutation of findings made at other institutions to the effect that athletes undermine academic standards.

Estimating on the basis of 12 as a perfect standing, Dr. Ellis found that an average of 85 non-athletes per year received a standing of 6, while 6 athletes received 5.5. "This difference in average scholarship is rather too small to be significant," his report declares.

El Cerrito Fish And Game Bureau Names Committee

El Cerrito Fish and Game Protective Association met last night for the first session since the July recess. The new executive committee appointed will be C. W. Zimmerman, Frank McDermott and Frank Walsh. W. P. Kelly is president and E. N. Wulzer secretary.

The club will join the Richmond Sportsmen's club in entertaining the Contra Costa County association of Sportsmen at the coming meet September 26, in Brotherhood hall.

A trap shoot to be held on the Stanford Chemical grounds is scheduled for the latter part of September or the first part of October. Small prizes will be awarded all participants.

Members are looking forward to a reunion dinner to be held in the near future.

Probably the time will come when a president will exact from every appointee a pledge not to write recollections.—The Montara Record-Herald

ONLY TWO MEN LOST ON BEAR PENNANT CREW

BERKELEY, Sept. 5.—Plans for the development of another championship crew at the University of California were outlined by Head Coach Ky Ebricht on the eve of his departure for a well earned vacation at Seattle, Washington, his home. Preliminary work with freshmen by assistant Coach Russ Nagler and work outs by the varsity men who were not on the first boats during the season just completed will comprise the fall campaign. When the spring season opens in the spring, all varsity and freshman rowers will hold daily work-outs under Ebricht and Nagler.

Graduation will take but two men from the championship crew of 1928, which set up a record of ten consecutive victories culminating in the winning of the Olympic Games test at Amsterdam in August. Don Blessing, cox, and Stahler, bow will be lost by graduation. Remaining as a large nucleus with which to build his 1929 crew, Ebricht will have Pete Donlon, stroke, an Oakland boy; Hube Caldwell, number 7, of Oakland; Bill Thompson, number 6, Napa; Bill Dally, number 5, Elsieville; Jim Workman, number 4, Orange; Fran Frederick, number 3, of Berkeley; and Jack Brinch number 2, of Winters.

Fuss Nagler, who is also on a vacation, will return in 10 days and issue the call for freshmen crew candidates. Elementary principles of rowing including work on land and with the barges will be the course of instruction for freshmen candidates for the first week of the training season.

On his return to the campus in three weeks Ebricht will begin working with sophomore crew candidates and also with varsity aspirants who were not in the first boats last season. "At present, I do not plan to do any training until the beginning of the season next year. These men have earned and are going to receive a rest," was Ebricht's declaration.

The six members of the California-Olympic championship crew now in Europe are not expected back until late fall. All will enter college in January and will be eligible for the 1929 season.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking a spoonful of this every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Indian is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless. And it works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle of it. Every drug store has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

A LITTLE HOME TOWN GIRL who made good was given a great big hand when she returned to Chicago. Here's part of crowd that met Betty Robinson (in white) when she arrived fresh from victory at the Olympic games. Betty won women's 100 metre dash and is considered fastest girl runner in the world.

Roberto Roberti Defeats Solomon

EBERTS FIELD, Brooklyn, Sept. 5.—Roberto Roberti, Italian heavyweight, won the decision over King Solomon, Panama, in a 10-round bout here tonight.

The big Italian held a 32 pound weight advantage, standing head and shoulders over "the King" and carried him around the ring by sheer weight jabbing him to the ropes often.

A default will be called according to rules adopted for the tournament. If a player fails to appear within a half hour from the time the match is scheduled, Rules of the U. S. L. T. A. will govern the tourney.

Silver trophies will be awarded the winners and runners-up. Entries may be sent to A. S. Remell, 769 Seventh street, or C. O. Bryant 121 Eleventh street.

Local Doctor Aids Victims

Two victims of an automobile accident near Cordelia probably owe their lives to the quick action of Dr. L. W. Fraser who with his wife, Mrs. Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burg and Dr. George Beamer was enroute to the Lion's Day celebration at the state fair. An unidentified man and his wife were driving their Ford truck on the way to Reno and were forced off the road by an automobile driven by a Hollywood "man" and were severely injured. The woman's head wounds and a bad gash on the man's leg were efficiently treated by Dr. Fraser who cared for them until an ambulance was summoned from Napa. The delayed party was accompanied into Sacramento by two motorcycle escorts.

Stars Maintain Lead By Victory

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—Hollywood and Sacramento first and second place teams in the Coast League, won their games today, and the Stars maintained a two game lead over the Solons.

Twenty hits enabled the Stars to drive three Solon hurlers from the mound and win a 10 to 7 game.

Vincent turned in a four hit game for Sacramento against Oakland and the Solons won, 4 to 2.

Los Angeles and the Missions each made 13 hits but six Angel errors helped the B's to a 14 to 1 victory.

Seattle and Portland split a double header. The Indians won the first game, 6 to 4, and Portland came through with a 5 to 2 victory.

ARCHITECT IS NAMED IN L.A. MURDER TRIAL

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 5.—(U.P.)—The name of a man supposed to be a prominent Los Angeles architect today was dragged into the trial of Leo P. Kelley, butcher boy lover and alleged murderer of Mrs. Myrtle Mellus, as a sobbing witness told of having attended a "party" at the Mellus home.

Mrs. Mae Switzer, closest woman friend of Mrs. Mellus, was the first witness for the defense.

She freely told of having been in the Mellus home with Mrs. Mellus and Kelley, while the husband, Frank Mellus, was absent.

Under cross examination, she was forced to admit that a fourth member of the party was "Mr. Butler." As she mentioned the name, she sobbed and court attaches recalled that Albert Switzer, her husband, had publicly announced a separation shortly after Mrs. Mellus was killed.

Mrs. Switzer's testimony was interpreted as a strong aid to the defense when she testified that four times she had known Mrs. Mellus to fall after she had been drinking.

Hahn previously had declared the defense would attempt to show she received a skull injury that proved fatal in a fall days before August 5.
